All the Regional Joint Directors of School and the District Educational Officers in the State are informed that the Government have issued orders in the reference 1st read above permitting the teachers transfer counseling through online web counseling method. Government have also ordered for awarding entitlement points to the Headmasters and teachers for transfers. Though in the Government orders are very clear the District Educational Officers are from time to time have requested for clarifications and necessary clarification within the ambit of law is issued in the references 2nd to 8th cited. In spite of clear clarifications / instructions issued certain District Educational Officers have not followed the rules / instructions issued thereby causing inconvenience to the administration. Senior officers of the department have been appointed as State Level Observers to look into the grievances / objections received during the course of transfer counseling, 2015.

Clarifications are once again being received to clarify with regard to awarding of performance points on the Annual Assessment Survey (AAS) 2015. It is informed that the Annual Assessment Survey (AAS) for the year 2015 is conducted for class III, V and VIII. There is no multi grade teaching in Primary Schools and hence the available SGTs are teaching class I to V in Primary Schools, and for VIII class the Annual Assessment Survey is conducted in three subjects i.e. English, Telugu and Mathematics.

Therefore, the entitlement points for Annual Assessment Survey (AAS) 2015 shall be given to the SGTs working in the Primary Schools and for VIII class to the subject teachers who taught the above three subjects and the Headmasters.

All the State Level Observers, Regional Joint Directors of School Education and the District Educational Officers are requested to take action accordingly.
