Sub: School Education – Examination Reforms for IX and X from the academic year 2014-15 on – reg.

Read: Press Statement of Hon'ble Minister for Human Resources Development.

***

All the Regional Joint Directors and District Educational Officers are hereby informed that there is lot of confusion regarding conduct of examinations for IX and X classes in the State.

All the Officers concerned are hereby informed that there will not be any change in the conduct of IX and X classes Examinations. The pattern forwarded will be continued and there will be no change either in the Number of papers or marks. However it may be noted that the New Text Books are to be followed and questions will be set to improve logical/ analytical thinking of children to improve academic standards instead of routine by heart (rote) learning. Director SCERT will keep same model-question paper in website soon.

Division of Syllabus for first and second languages will be done paper wise and it will be communicated by Director SCERT separately.

However Govt. orders are awaited.
