The Attention of all the Regional Joint Directors of School Education and District Educational Officers in the state is invited to references read above and they are informed that in connection with WP No.21147 of 2021, the Director of School Education, A.P., has appeared before the Hon'ble High Court on 29.09.2021 and submitted to the Hon'ble High Court that the School Education department is not bringing any kind of pressure in whatever manner on the private aided managements for giving their willingness to surrender their grant in aid to government.

2. In compliance to the undertaking given by Director of School Education to the Hon'ble AP High Court, he held a webex meeting immediately on 29.09.2021 at 3.30 P.M with all the Regional Joint Directors of School Education and District Education Officers and directed them to not to put any kind of pressure on any private aided management that has not given their willingness to surrender the grant in aid to government with assets or without assets. He further directed that no pressure shall be put in in any manner either in writing or verbally or through any other media for obtaining the willingness of the managements.

3. While reiterating the instructions herewith, it is informed that any such instances of pressure in whatever manner, if reported by any management will be viewed seriously and action will be initiated against such officers.

4. As on 29-9-2021, District Education Officers have informed that (572) managements have not given their willingness and (1,374) managements have given their willingness.

5. If any management out of those (572) managements voluntarily approaches the District Educational Officer to give their willingness, the District Educational Officer may forward the same to the Director of School Education or may advise the management to send the proposal to the Director of School Education directly.
