2. According to the Statuary Service Rules under Annexure VIII of A.P Fundamental Rules, Leave taken by a probationer constitutes a break in the continuity of probation. This will cause extension of probation of married women employees who avail maternity leave during their period of probation and result in the loss of their seniority.

3. In the reference 2nd read above, the Chairman, APJAC, Amaravathi, Vijayawada has requested the Government to treat the maternity leave sanctioned to the married women employees during the probation as duty for the purpose of probation on par with the married women employees in Kerala Government as there is no financial implication and very few number of women will get the benefit.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter hereby order that maternity leave sanctioned as per the orders issued in the reference 1st read above shall be treated as duty for the purpose of counting the probation period and for declaration of probation. Government also order that other kinds of leave combined with the maternity leave shall not be treated as duty for the purpose of probation as per the existing rules.

5. These orders come into effect with prospective effect and subsequent to the issue of the necessary amendments to A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996, A.P Fundamental Rules & A.P Leave Rules.

6. Necessary amendments to A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996, and A.P Fundamental Rules & A.P Leave Rules shall be issued immediately by the General Administration Department and Finance Department.
